

CALL FOR PAPERS

Special Session

"Entrepreneurship in Engineering Education" (EiEE) Goals, best practices, funding programs, chances and risks

@ ICL2017, September 27th – 29th, 2017; Budapest, Hungary

20th International Conference on Interactive Collaborative Learning

46th IGIP International Conference on Engineering Pedagogy

<http://www.icl-conference.org/icl2017>

The 2nd edition of the Special Session Entrepreneurship in Engineering Education 2017 (EiEE'17) aims to promote the discussion of goals and experiences to reinforce entrepreneurial education at engineering educational institutions (colleges, universities). The organizers are members of the Austrian Federal Working Group "Entrepreneurship for Engineers" (EfE).

The EiEE17 session aims to provide a platform to discuss the following questions:

- What are the specifics in entrepreneurship for the educational systems of engineers?
- Which content should be taught? Which teaching/learning methods should be applied?
- What do all the initiatives of the EC, etc... mean for the education of engineers?
- Which experiences can be shared within the IGIP community?
- Which role can and/or should IGIP perform?

The goal is to establish an international network of „Entrepreneurship Education for Engineers“.

Topics of Interest: Contributions regarding

- educational goals
- educational contents & approaches
- best-practice examples
- national, European & international initiatives and projects
- funding programs

in the fields of entrepreneurship & innovation management for engineers

- challenges for the teacher's role in Entrepreneurship Education
(What makes a good entrepreneurial teacher?)
